FLING THE BANNER TO THE BREEZE

PATRIOTIC SONG

WORDS BY

PATRICK KANE

MUSIC BY

GEORGE LOWELL TRACY

PRICE 50 CENTS.

THE ACORN PUBLISHING Co
— BOSTON,— MASS.—

FLING THE BANNER TO THE BREEZE

Words by PATRICK KANE

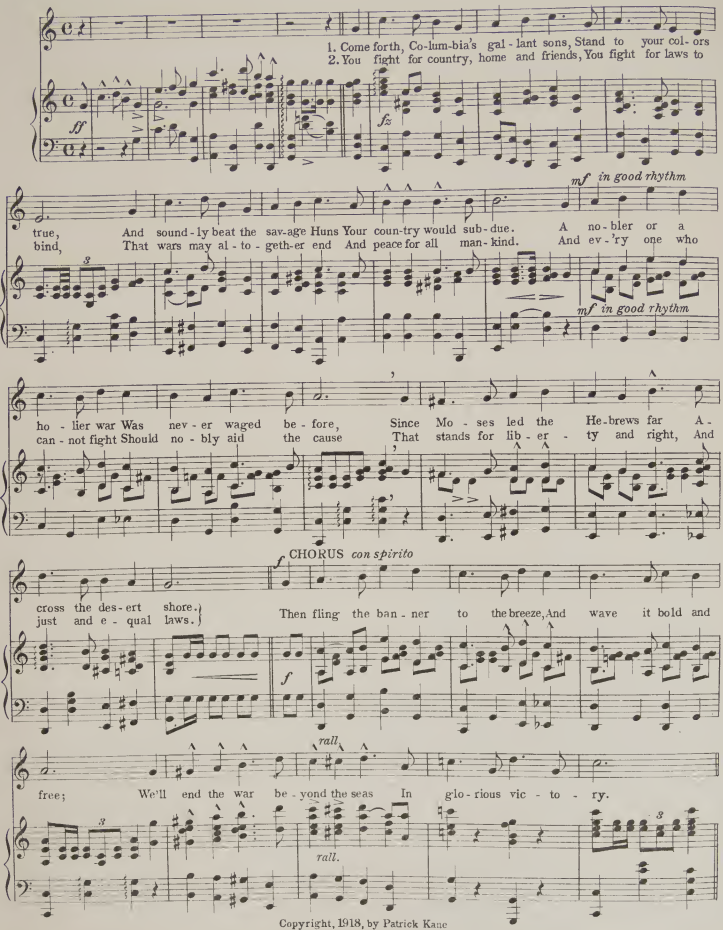
Music by
GEORGE LOWELL TRACY



1. Come forth, Co-lum-bia's gal - lant sons, Stand to your col - ors
2. You fight for country, home and friends, You fight for laws to ff
fz
mf in good rhythm
true, And sound - ly beat the sav-age Huns Your coun-try would sub - due. A no - bler or a bind, That wars may al - to - geth-er end And peace for all man - kind. And ev - 'ry one who
mf in good rhythm
ho - lier war Was nev - er waged be - fore, Since Mo - ses led the He-brews far A - can - not fight Should no - bly aid the cause That stands for lib - er - ty and right, And f CHORUS con spirito
cross the des - ert shore,
just and e - qual laws.
Then fling the ban - ner to the breeze, And wave it bold and f
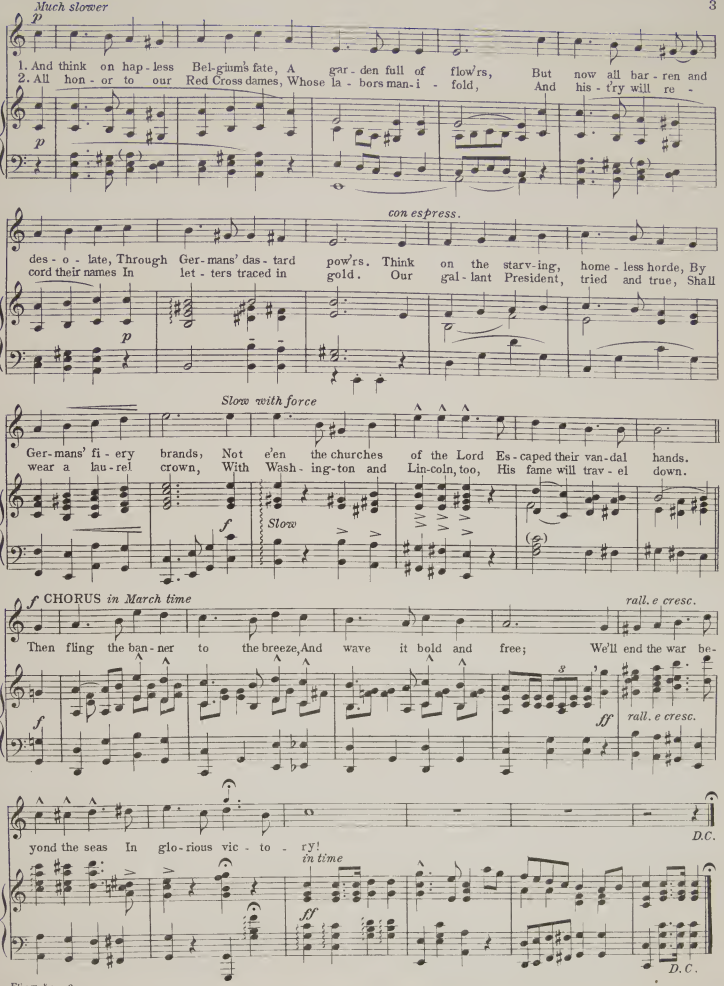
rall
free; We'll end the war be - yond the seas In glo - rious vic - to - ry.
rall.

Copyright, 1918, by Patrick Kane



Much slower
p
1. And think on hap - less Bel-gium's fate, A gar - den full of flow'rs, But now all bar - ren and
2. All hon - or to our Red Cross dames, Whose la - bors man - i - fold, And his - try will re - con espress.
des - o - late, Through Ger-mans' das - tard pow'rs. Think on the starv-ing, home - less horde, By cord their names In let - ters traced in gold. Our gal - lant President, tried and true, Shall Slow with force
Ger-mans' fi - ery brands, Not e'en the churches of the Lord Es - caped their van - dal hands.
wear a lau - rel crown, With Wash - ing - ton and Lin-coln, too, His fame will trav - el down.
Slow
f CHORUS in March time
rall. e cresc.
Then fling the ban - ner to the breeze, And wave it bold and free; We'll end the war be -
ff
yond the seas In glo - rious vic - to - ry!
D.C.
in time
ff
D.C.